CONSENT DECREE

This action was instituted on April 29, 2008 by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “EEOC” or the “Commission”) against the Defendant SleeveCo, Inc. (the “Defendant”) pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. (hereinafter “Title VII”), and the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981(a), to remedy the alleged wrongful practices identified in the Complaint filed in this action. A Complaint was filed by Tammy Stratton (“Stratton”), as Plaintiff-Intervenor, on June 12, 2008.

In its Complaint, the Commission alleged that Tammy Stratton was subjected to sexual harassment and a hostile work environment due to her sex, female, and terminated from her employment in retaliation for engaging in protected activity by reporting and/or opposing the sexual harassment, in violation of Title VII. The Commission also sought make-whole relief including, but not limited to, back pay with interest, compensatory and punitive damages, and injunctive and other affirmative relief. Defendant filed its Answer to Complaint of Plaintiff EEOC on June 11, 2008. In its Answer, the Defendant denied that it had violated Title VII as alleged in the Complaint, and requested that the Court deny any relief to the Commission based on the Complaint. Defendant filed its Answer to the Complaint of Intervening Plaintiff Tammy Stratton on July 7, 2008, denying that it violated Title VII or that Stratton was entitled to any relief.

The parties to this action desire to avoid the additional expense, delay, and uncertainty that would result from the continuance of this litigation, and desire to formulate a plan to be embodied in this Consent Decree that will promote and effectuate the purposes of Title VII. The parties want to conclude fully and finally all claims arising out of the charges of discrimination filed with the Commission by Tammy Stratton, the Commission's Complaint, and Stratton's Complaint. They enter into this Consent Decree to further the objectives of Title VII and equal employment opportunity. This Consent Decree is not to be deemed or construed to be an admission of liability or wrongdoing by Defendant but constitutes the good faith settlement of a disputed claim.

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over the parties to this action, as the employment practices alleged to be unlawful in the Complaints filed herein occurred within the jurisdiction of the Northern District of Georgia, Gainesville Division.

This Court has reviewed the terms of the proposed Consent Decree in light of the pleadings and the applicable law and regulations, and has approved this Consent Decree as one that will promote and effectuate the purposes of Title VII.

Now, therefore, this Court being fully advised in the premises, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

Jurisdiction of this Court is pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 451, 1331, 1337, 1343, and 1345. This action is authorized pursuant to Sections 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3), and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981(a).

The above referenced training shall be completed within ninety (90) days of the entry of this Consent Decree.

Defendant shall provide written certification to the Commission of training completed pursuant to this Section within fifteen (15) days following completion of training. The certification shall include the name(s) and qualifications of the person(s) providing instruction, names and job titles of attendees, length of training, and the training topics. Defendant will fulfill the posting requirement within fifteen (15) days of the entry of this Consent Decree and shall certify, within thirty (30) days of such date, that posting has been accomplished.

Defendant shall not withhold the right of the EEOC to enter upon its premises to monitor compliance with this Section. Should the Notice become defaced, marred, or otherwise unreadable, Defendant will ensure that a new, readable copy of the Notice is posted in the same manner as heretofore specified within five (5) working days of discovering the defective Notice.

X. TERM OF DECREE AND PERIOD OF JURISDICTION

This Consent Decree shall continue to be effective and binding upon the parties to this action for a period of thirty-six (36) calendar months immediately following the entry of the Decree, provided that all remedial benefits required hereby have been received or offered prior to its expiration and provided further, that all required reports and certifications are submitted at least thirty (30) days before the expiration date of the Consent Decree. If required reports are not submitted within thirty (30) days of the expiration date or if the remedial benefits are not received or offered, the Consent Decree will be automatically extended until these provisions are completed.

Upon the Court's execution and entry of this Consent Decree, this case shall be dismissed with prejudice. However, this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action for the purposes of clarifying and enforcing this Consent Decree and for any other appropriate or equitable purposes for thirty-six (36) calendar months from the date of entry of this Consent Decree, unless the Court acts or the Commission has, prior to the expiration of said thirty-six (36) calendar month period, moved to enforce compliance with the Consent Decree. If the Court acts or the Commission has moved to enforce compliance with this Consent Decree within this period, this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action until all issues relating to all such motions which are made during the thirty-six (36) month period have been resolved. At the expiration of the thirty-six (36) month period of jurisdiction, if all obligations have been performed by the parties under this Consent Decree, and no disputes regarding compliance remain unresolved, then the Decree shall operate as an automatic dismissal with prejudice.

XI. COMPLIANCE OFFICIAL

The Defendant has designated Greg Bangs to be Defendant's Compliance Official who shall be responsible for Defendant's compliance with this Consent Decree. The Compliance Official is to be responsible for coordinating and overseeing Defendant's compliance with the specific terms of this Consent Decree.

XII. PROCEDURE FOR ENFORCING COMPLIANCE

The Commission will attempt to resolve any dispute regarding the enforcement of this Consent Decree by informal mediation and consultation before seeking enforcement through the judicial process. The Commission will notify, in writing by first class mail and facsimile, Defendant's Compliance Official if it has any reason to believe that any act or omission by Defendant is in violation of the Consent Decree. Defendant shall have thirty (30) days after the receipt of such notification to cure any such alleged deficiency, and to notify the Commission, by written report addressed to the Regional Attorney at the EEOC's Atlanta District Office, of the measures taken to cure the alleged deficiencies.

If upon receipt of Defendant's report, the Commission concludes that the deficiency has not been satisfactorily cured by Defendant, the Commission shall seek to resolve the alleged deficiency through good faith conciliation or mediation. If the alleged deficiency is not resolved within thirty (30) days after the initiation of such good faith conciliation or mediation process, then the Commission may seek enforcement of this Consent Decree through the judicial process.

Nothing in this agreement shall be deemed to prohibit any matter which occurred during the term of this Consent Decree, and which constitutes a dispute as contemplated by this Section, from being fully and completely resolved in the manner described in this Section, even if the term of the Consent Decree expires prior to thirty (30) days after the initiation of good faith conciliation or mediation as set forth in this Section.

XIII. OTHER ACTIONS

The Commission shall not commence or prosecute Defendant for any action or other proceeding based upon any claims, demands, causes of action, obligations, damages or liabilities that arose out of Tammy Stratton's claims that she was subjected to sexual harassment and a hostile work environment due to her sex, female, and terminated in retaliation for engaging in protected activity by reporting and/or opposing the sexual harassment in violation of Title VII, as embodied in EEOC Charge Number 410-2007-02259, which was filed with, and investigated by, the EEOC's Atlanta District Office. This Consent Decree in no way affects the Commission's right to process any pending or future charges that may be filed against Defendant in accordance with standard Commission procedures, and to commence and prosecute civil actions pursuant to Title VII (or any other statutes enforced by the Commission) on any such charges. Nothing in this Consent Decree shall be construed to limit or reduce Defendant's obligation to fully comply with Title VII; the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; or the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. Nothing herein shall preclude the Commission from bringing an action to enforce the provisions of this Consent Decree.
